Navicure Ranked Among Top 40 Fastest Growing North American Companies on Deloitte's 2007 Technology Fast 500

Announcement comes on the heels of being named the fastest growing technology company in Georgia over past five years

Atlanta, October 23, 2007—Navicure, a leading provider of automated, Web-based claims management solutions for physician practices, today announced it ranked number 40 on Deloitte's 2007 Technology Fast 500, a ranking of the 500 fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications and life sciences companies in North America. Rankings are based on percentage of fiscal year revenue growth from 2002–2006.

"To rank on Deloitte's Technology Fast 500, companies must achieve phenomenal revenue growth over five years," said Phil Asmundson, vice chairman, U.S. Technology, Media and Telecommunications, Deloitte & Touche USA LLP. "We applaud Navicure for being among the fastest growing companies in North America."

In addition to ranking on Deloitte's Technology Fast 500, Navicure ranked first on the Georgia Technology Fast 50, which is a ranking of the 50 fastest growing technology firms in Georgia. Navicure's 4,478 percent increase in revenues from 2002 to 2006 resulted in the number 1 ranking.

"We are honored to be recognized on both the state and national levels for our success," said Jim Denny, founder, president and CEO of Navicure. "We have worked hard to meet our clients' needs every day in order to achieve our growth. In addition to expanding our client base to 10,000 monthly subscribers paying a premium for our service, we are proud of our industry-leading 2 percent attrition rate over the past five years."

Overall, companies that ranked on the 2007 Technology Fast 500 had growth rates ranging from 253 to 79,060 percent over five years, with an average growth rate of 1,823 percent.

The Fast 500 ranks the fastest growing technology, media, telecommunications and life sciences companies in North America. It is compiled from Deloitte's 16 regional North American Fast 50 programs, nominations submitted directly to the Fast 500, and public company database research. Companies are selected based on percentage revenue growth from 2002 to 2006.

Entrants must own proprietary intellectual property or proprietary technology that contributes to a significant portion of the company's operating revenues or devote a significant proportion of revenues to research and development of technology. Using other companies' technology or intellectual property in a unique way does not qualify. Base-year operating revenues must be at least $50,000 USD or $75,000 CD, and current-year operating revenues must be at least $5 million USD or CD. Companies must be in business a minimum of five years, and they must be headquartered within North America.

About Deloitte

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, a Swiss Verein, its member firms, and their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu is an organization of member firms around the world devoted to excellence in providing professional services and advice, focused on client service through a global strategy executed locally in nearly 140 countries. With access to the deep intellectual capital of approximately 150,000 people worldwide, Deloitte delivers services in four professional areas—audit, tax, consulting, and financial advisory services—and serves more than 80 percent of the world's largest companies, as well as large national enterprises, public institutions, locally important clients, and successful, fast-growing global companies. Services are not provided by the Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Verein, and, for regulatory and other reasons, certain member firms do not provide services in all four professional areas.

As a Swiss Verein (association), neither Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu nor any of its member firms has any liability for each other's acts or omissions. Each of the member firms is a separate and independent legal entity operating under the names "Deloitte," "Deloitte & Touche," "Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu," or other related names.
