Navicare Included on the Healthcare Informatics' HCI 100 for Seventh Consecutive Year

Provider of billing and payment solutions ranks on annual list of 100 largest public and private healthcare IT companies

Atlanta, July 21, 2015—Navicare®, a provider of cloud-based billing and payment solutions, today announced its ranking on the 2015 Healthcare Informatics' HCI 100 list. The company ranked 85th on the list this year by demonstrating a year-over-year growth in sales of its claims management and patient payment solutions. This year marks the seventh consecutive year Navicare has been named on the list.

For more than 20 years, Healthcare Informatics has ranked the top 100 vendors with the highest revenues, calculated based on U.S. revenue earned from healthcare IT products and services during the previous year. During fiscal year 2014, Navicare earned $73.8 million in revenues which is a 17 percent increase from their 2013 revenue. Navicare's inclusion on the HCI 100 list comes on the heels of the company's announcement of posting record quarterly bookings of customer contracts totaling $3.2 million in annualized value in the first quarter of 2015, a 32 percent increase over the same quarter the previous year.

"We are proud to be included on the 2015 HCI 100 list once again, which is a testament to, our dedicated team and loyal clients for enabling continued growth in today's competitive environment," said Jim Denny, president and CEO of Navicare. "Every day, our team strives to provide our clients with the educational tools and superior technology needed to streamline and enhance medical claims management and patient payment collections. We consider ourselves lucky to partner with healthcare organizations, physician practices and billing companies of all sizes, working together to drive continued RCM success."
